THE LAUREL

PUBLISHED BY

THE SENIOR CLASS

OF

APPALACHIAN HIGH SCHOOL

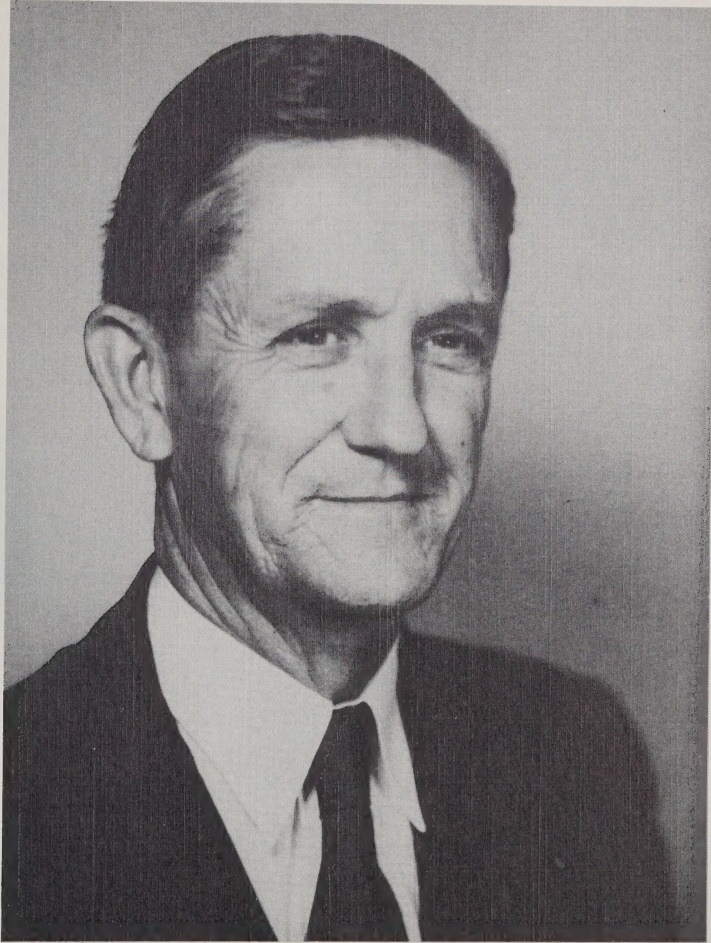

BOONE, NORTH CAROLINA

1953-54

Foreword

As we think of the many days we spent at Appalachian, they become the days of precious friendships, classes, activities, honors, victories, and defeats--the carefree days of joy and laughter, books and learning. Maybe we're sentimental but these days, these years, will always be remembered by each of us.

Dedication

To Mr. Tait, who by his untiring service, energetic loyalty, and complete understanding, has won for himself the high regard of the student body, we, the Senior Class of 1954, gratefully dedicate this the eighth volume of the Laurel.
